THE MILLS HOUSE .- An unfounded rumor has been in circulation for the past few days that this popular caravansary had been closed. No rumor could be more cruel or unjust. A man in the length and breadth of the State will speculation or two in which Mr. Purceil en- heed the call. rangements have been made with his creditors, and the Mills House is to remain, as it public notice that his district would not suphas always been, one of the best conducted hotels in the South. Mr. Purcell's reputation as a hotelist is so widely known that the abovementioned rumor would affect a host of friends who have always made his house their home, and might deter them from paying him their usual calls. We take pleasure in assuring not only that class, but the world at large who have heard of the Mills House, that it offers the same inducements to travellers as it ever did, and its hospitable doors will not be closed in this day and generation.

"EINTRITTSKARTE ZUR MASKERADE DER TEU-TONIA, MITTWOCH, DEN 18 MÆRZ, 1868, IN DER SAENGEBBUND HALL."-The above is the fearful jaw-splitting, head-cracking inscription that last night carried one of the reporters of the News, body and soul, into the midst of as jolly a gathering of our fun loving German citizens as ever stirred their pedestals to waltz time. For a full half hour he perambulated wildly among all sorts of people and things, dressed in every conceivable style, and peeping out of the most horrible enormities into which fancy ever shaped the human face. The array of characters was crushing and raiscellaneous, and as the night progressed the Stun grew fast and furious, always tempered, however, with that courtesy and self-respect weich is the characteristic of the German nature. In brief, the occasion was a success, athe music fine, and all who participated are probably loaded down with the happy memories of the night.

Yesterday, the curiosity of a reporter induced him to enter and inspect the building. Under the skilful manipulation of Mr. J. H. Devereaux and of 4 .Mr. D. A. J. Sullivan, the interior has been occupy their respective houses. considerably altered and improved. The main door at the corner now opens on a vestibule, through which the visitor passes to the bankmanner, the railing being made of oak and S. C.; P. J. Crowell, Boston; R. Bridges mahogany, neither of the woods being varnished, but merely polished and then oiled. The desks and other furniture are all new, and were made in the building. The whole work of reconstruction was performed by Charleston mechanics, and the railing will compare favorably with that in the First National Bank. The iron work was furnished by Mr. C. Werner, and will be bronzed green. The cotton sample room has been formed by a partition running along the East Bay side, and will contain deaks and tables for samples. It is a light airy room and admirably adapted for the purpose. In the rear of the banking room are the private offices and other necessary rooms, which are to be slegantly fitted up. It is expected that the counting house will be opened for business purposes on Saturday, as the larger portion of the work is completed and the finishing touches will not occupy many days. The basement will be occupied by Messrs. Holmes & Macbeth, as brokers and commission agents, and by Mr. John H. Devereaux, builder, as an office. No use has been yet assigned to the second story; but we trust that the business of the city will soon warrant the re-establishment of the merchants' reading room.

Troubles in the Wigwam.

SOMEBODY GWINE TO BE HURT"-CURIOUS REVE-LATIONS-THE INTELLIGENT COLORED MEN DISSATISFIED-NEW CANDIDATES TO BE KOMI-NATED—WHAT WILL THE WHITE CITIZENS DO?-

"Something's up." The row has begun. The Radical managers are already in hot water, and the probabilities are that the cooks will spoil the broth. An informal caucus of the State Central Committee, the Grand Council of the Union League, and members of the Convention, was held at the Club House on Tuesbut peaceful. Grave charges were made against some of the grand tycoons of the new He was fined $10 for his evil intentions. party, and threats of public exposure were freely collected from sundry individuals for electioneering purposes and the payment of miscellaneous "incidentals," connected with the several plays that have been performed upon the Radical boards, and that the treasurers have refused to render an account aroused suspicions of foul play.

What is to be done in the premises, ye deponent knoweth not, but it is evident in the language of one the indignant delegates that ly deep to make the offenders more than tight 'somebody's gwine to be hurt." Even the colored men are discovering that, for the last three years, they have taken the bread from the months of their wives and children to support a class of men who, rotten to the coze, are to-day still feeding on the very comport of political corruption. They are the men who promised lands for votes, who pledged all sorts of impossible things to secure a place in the convention, and have finally turned out firstclass demagogues, whose chief ambition is to secure for themselves the kernel of the nut and throw the shells to the poor "nigger." Some day the scales will fall from the eyes of the now blind freedman. Some day he will learn that his truest friends are neither of his own color, nor in the ranks of the Radical party; and some day he will turn his back in hatred and disgust upon those who have speculated upon his ignorance, and made him the tool to further their designs.

Already some of the most intelligent colored men in Charleston, while satisfied with the general tone of the constitution, express their amazement at the character of the persons who, scum-like, have drifted to the surface in the political mælstrom, and claim the suffrages of the Radical party. Already the dissecting knife has been applied and the discovery made that beneath the fair skins of delegates and candidates there are black hearts; that within skulis whence came forth noisy harangues about the rights and liberties of the people, lay a mass of brain, dense, torpid, uuillumed by a ray of honest virtue, and unenlightened by an average amount of mental culture. Already these true representative colored men have determined to cut loose from the ties which bind them to the support of such "regular" nominations, as likewise involve the support of ignorant and irresponsible nominees: and in all probability the next ten days will witness a movement made for the purpose of bringing out candidates for various offices who will justly, fairly and well represent the interests of all the people.

We hope that something of this character will be speedily done not only by the colored residents but by the white citizens. Every man owes it to himself, to his family, and to his city and State, to go promptly to work in the matter, and as far as in his power lies, assist in stemming the current now at its flood. We have less than thirty days in which to do this great duty, therefore let it be done with a will. Let clubs be formed in every ward and district-yea, on every square, first to secure the registration of every man entitled to a vote, and secondly to determine for whom to vote. Organize! organize! organize! should now be the watchword, and we trust that every

THE THEATRE. -The "Octoroon" drew a good house last night, and Mrs. Gladstane, as Zoe, proved that she was a thorough artiste, and could fill any role. This play has attracted considerable attention in the South, and is one of the best ever written by Dion Bourcicault. The company sustained their different casts the immediate control of the Bureau, and admirably, and the negro character was faithfully portraved. It is one of the most interesting dramas that has been introduced given. this season, and its repetition is earnestly desired by those who were present last night.

THE FIRE COMMISSION which was called by Chief Nathans to investigate the recent incendiary attempt in Warren-street, made a report to the Mayor yesterday. A number of witnesses were examined, but the testimony elicited was not strong enough to convict either the colored man, Wright, or the white boy, Phillip Sacks, who were suspected. The fire was clearly the work of an incendiary, but it family will be pleased to hear this news. was so adroitly managed that the author will probably be never known.

THE COLORED SCHOOLS OF THE BUREAU IN SOUTH CAROLINA .- We have been turnished with the monthly statement of the Educational Department of the Freedmen's Bureau, by Mr. Reuben Tomlinson, Superintendent of Education, from which we gather the following interesting particulars. There are one hundred and thirty-eight teachers-one hundred and one white and thirty-seven colored-with an enrolled attendance of seven thousand seven actual attendance of five thousand eight hundred and fifty-four. Of the pupils, nine hundred and forty-one are over sixteen years of age and are in different stages of advancement, a large proportion being able to read and write. The sexes are nearly equally divided, there being three thousand five hundred and ninetynine males and four thousand one hundred and seventy females. Forty-one Sunday schools have been established in connection with the day schools and are attended by three thousand two hundred and seventy-one pupils. THE CASE OF COLLINS .- The Marion Star is informed that General Canby has consented to release Mr. Edward Collins, of that District on bail, who has been confined in Castle Pinck ney for seven or eight months for an alleged crime, said to have been committed since the surrender of the Confederate army. Doubtless the friends of Mr. Collins and his helpless

This "Caliben" of the ocean was a compromise between a fish and something else it was like, and yet it was not: but it would have made the fortune of some enterprising Barnum. Its lateral fins were elongated and furnished with some resemblance of fingers. Altogether the monster was a enriosity and deserves the attention of some taxider mist or other "stuffer" and a conspicuous place in the College museum.

OPENING OF THE CO-OPERATIVE STORE-ITS FUTURE AN UNDOUBTED SUCCESS .- We had the pleasure last evening of attending the opening of the co-operative store. After months of anxious expectation, the ball has at length been set in motion, and the members now see the beginning of the end. The store is a fixed fact, and though but a small portion of their goods have arrived, the association deemed it best to open at once with the stock on hand. The establishment is on the south side of Mar ket-street, in the building formerly occupied by Mr. Mehrtens, but it has been refitted and painted, so that it now wears a new and handome face.

Mr. W. H. Welch has been elected storekeen er, and will be assisted by Mr. John R. Wigfall. Both of these gentlemen have a large experience in the grocery business, and will devote their entire time to their customers.

A casual glance around the store showed tha it was fitted up with great taste. The goods displayed were evidently of the best quality and will be sold at the lowest market rates The Co-operative Association have determine that their project shall succeed, and have boldly put their shoulders to the wheel. They have opened a grocery store for the reason that it would be of the most present service to the members, but will add other branches of business in due time. Their prospects are good, and while they stand together there is no fear of a failure. The store will be opened to the public this morning, and a cordial in vitation is extended to inspect the stock.

Now, that this enterprise has been so suc essfully inaugurated, we trust that its example will be imitated in other portions of the city. If not, the present association, as soon as the funds enable them to do so, will take i upon themselves to extend the benefit of the co-operative system by opening additiona

THE DATLY NEWS was the first to suggest the importance of the undertaking, and recommend it to the consideration of the working classes, and we shall watch with special care every development which indicates the progress and success of the association.

PHŒNIX FIRE COMPANY .- The monthly meet ing of this active and meritorious fire company, last evening, was distinguished by a procedure which so creditably illustrates the spirit of our Fire Department as well as that gener osity which so generally distinguishes our community, that we deem it worthy of special notice and commendation.

When the routine business had been dispos ed of, President Tupper stated that some days since he was informed that a silver trumpe which had been presented by the company to their esteemed and lamented ex-President B Wainwright Bacot, would be offered for sale at auction, and determined that it should be purchased, at whatever cost, for the purpose of gaged proved to be unfortunate, and he is now gaged proved to be unfortunate, and he is now part that average being presented by the company to the widow esteem. That he had requested Mr. Wilmot G DeSaussure to ask the auctioneer, when the trumpet was presented for sale, to read the inscription upon it, which was done, as follows: Presented to President R. Wainwright Baco by the officers and members of the Phoenix Fire Company of Charleston, S. C., in token of the high esteem and respect in which he is held by them. May 14, 1840.

Mr. DeSaussure then announced that he was authorized and directed by President Tupper to purchase the trumpet, at any cost, on behalf of the Phonix Fire Company, for the purpose of presenting it to the widow of their esteemed ex-President, and that he would start the bidding at one dollar. Whereupon there was a spontaneous burst from the audience "Knock it down at once to the Phonix," and there being no competition, this magnificent specimen of art, which originally cost one hundred and eighty dollars, was awarded to the company. President Tupper then presented the trumpet, and said it was at the disposal of the company.

Vice-President Hasel thereupon offered a resolution, that the company approve the action of the President, and that he be directed, on behalf of the company, to present the trumpet to the widow of the deceased, as a testimony of their appreciation of the services of their lamented ex-President, and co their respect and sympathy for herseif.

This resolution was seconded by ex-Pro dent William E. Holmes, and the vote bein taken there was not a dissenting voice.

February 20 AFA FALLACY. SOME PEOPLE THINK that Chronic Dyspepsia may be cured by exercise and diet alone. This is a mistake. The Stomach must be stimulated and regulated, and the liver and the discharging organs put in good working order before a cure can be effected. Such is the operation of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

"They tone the stomach, set the liver right, And put the stomach in such a healthful plight, That good digestion waits on appetite."

Many persons fancy that Fever and Ague can b avoided by adopting unusual precautions against damp and cold. Never was there a greater fallacy. There is no absolute suggrard against malarious maladies, except HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. "To brace the frame and make it ague-proof, To keep the causes of disease aloof,'

There is nothing like this gerial vegetable invigor ant. So, too, in cases where there is a predisposition to billiousness; the constitutional tendency is comhatted and held in check by the alterative action of the BITTERS.

Diet and regimen are power'ul allies of judicious medical treatment when the preservation of health in insalubrious localities is the object in view. But they will not answer the desired end alone. Use them as aids to the BITTERS, but do not rely upon the efficacy of any formula that does not include thi admirable tonic. The BITTERS consist of an unadulterated vegetable essence (unrivalled among stimulants), medicated solely with herbs and roots of acknowledged virtue as tonics. It is agreeable to the taste and perfectly harmless. Even to children of delicate co stitutions it may be given with perfect impunity. In fact, with these, as with those of older growth, its wonderful recuperant properties are at once appa-March 16 ATTEAST INDIAN SECRECY.—A CERTAIN
